INSTRUCTORS

Pete Kennedy, Esq. is an attorney and President, Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund and Vice President, Farm-to-Consumer Foundation. He works on dairy issues, particularly, the right of farmers to distribute raw milk and raw milk products direct to consumers. Each week, he helps farmer members of the Fund with cow or goat-share operation start-ups. He compiled the state raw milk laws and state raw milk summaries posted at RealMilk.com. He is currently working with others to challenge the federal ban on the interstate shipment of raw milk for human consumption.

Tim Wightman is President, Farm-to-Consumer Foundation and founding board member for the Farm-to-Consumer Legal Defense Fund. He has pioneered CSAs, organic cooperatives, farmers' markets, the cow-share program and the farm-share program. Tim consults worldwide with dairy farmers on cow-shares, raw milk safety and direct marketing, and is the author of the "Raw Milk Production Handbook", and the instructor in "From Grass to the Glass – Chore Time" DVD.

Sharon Wilson is a charter member and currently Treasurer, Raw Milk Association of Colorado (RMAC). She is the owner, operator of Natural Choice Dairy, LLC a goat herd-share in Colorado. As a Board member of RMAC, she has been helping to create test standards for goats along with product standards and recommended process standards. Sharon has been consulting other potential goat share operations in and out of state for the last five years.
